Canada Price Increase: Residential Roofing Products

Dear Customers:

Thank you for your continued business and support as we have responded to today's challenging market environment.

Due to the changing economic environment, GAF Canada ULC is announcing a price increase on all residential roofing products that will take effect for shipments beginning on April 14, 2025.

If you have any questions concerning this increase, please contact your local Territory Manager, National Account Manager, or Sales Manager.

Thank you for your continued support.
